

ANDY MACNAE MP

Andy is the Labour MP for Rossendale and Darwen, elected in 2024. He lives locally with his family and has a background in both business and public service. Before entering Parliament, he ran an adventure sports business and served as a councillor, leading regeneration projects including Rawtenstall Town Square, Lee Quarry Mountain Bike Trails, PEER business support, and the Bacup Townscape Heritage Initiative. He is a former mountaineer and previously held senior leadership roles at the British Mountaineering Council. He remains active in outdoor and cycling advocacy as a trustee of Cycling UK and a parliamentary cycling campaigner.

MP for Rossendale and Darwen